ISSUE/QUESTION

2009 Flu Vaccine Program Re-starts

ANSWER

The 2009 Flu Vaccine Program worksite and public clinics are scheduled to re-start this week. A large shipment of seasonal flu vaccine has been received. The worksite clinics will resume, Wednesday, December 2, 2009 for Phoenix, Tucson, and rural areas. Healthwaves will also re-open their public flu clinics beginning Tuesday, December 1, 2009. The schedule of worksite flu clinics can be found on the Wellness website at www.benefitoptions.az.gov under the "flu shots" link. The Healthwaves public clinic schedule is posted online at www.healthwaves.com

Please ask employees at your agencies to check both the work site and Healthwaves public clinic schedules online regularly for updates.
